Enduring Understandings:

_EU 1_
Social context influences identities and lives.

_EU 2_
The products of a culture reflect that culture’s beliefs and priorities of that time.

_EU 3_
Governments and other societal structures exist to reflect the priorities and ambitions of a culture.

Essential Questions:

_EU 1_
- Why is race such a significant issue in our culture?
- How do gender and sexuality shape personality and society?
- How have social roles changed over time?

_EU 2_
- To what extent are the arts a reflection of society, and to what extent is society a reflection of the arts?
- How does the creation of art allow people to express themselves within a society?

_EU 3_

Stage 3 – Learning Plan

Suggested Learning Activities to Include Differentiated Instruction and Interdisciplinary Connections: Consider the WHERE TO elements. Each learning activity listed must be accompanied by a learning goal of A= Acquiring basic knowledge and skills, M= Making meaning and/or a T= Transfer.

This is a list of possible activities to be implemented in the humanities classroom. Not every teacher will include every activity in his or her learning plan.

- Teacher notes and PowerPoint presentations on key concepts of society (A).
- Discuss and analyze various perspectives on race relations (M).
- Debate gender and family roles in society (M).
- View episodes of “What Would You Do?” on YouTube showing differences on race relations and discuss society’s reactions (M).
- Create a chart comparing the biological and sociological factors of gender roles (M).
- Analyze the evolution of gender roles through sitcoms (M).
- Write your own response to a “Dear Abby” letter on a societal issue (M, T).
- Read a short story, play, various poems by authors whose fiction focuses on social issues (A).
- Debate the role of government in legislating rights for minority groups (M).
- Creation of a golden record—similar to the record sent with the Voyager spacecraft—meant to communicate Earth’s current culture to aliens through the inclusion of art, history, and scientific facts (M, T).
- View “Exit from the Gift Shop” and examine different examples of graffiti for artistic merit (A, M).
- Examine controversial works of art and their impacts on societies (A, M).
- Listen to protest music from a variety of periods (A).
- Read and analyze excerpts of Thomas More’s Utopia and other Utopian literature (A, M).
- View “Pleasantville” and/or “The Truman Show” and debate utopian societies (A, M).
- Create a graphic organizer to compare different forms of government (A).
- Write a letter to the editor to promote their preferred form of government (T).
- Debate the pros and cons of current wars or military actions (M).
- Write a speech for or against a US military action of the past or present after researching it (M, T).
- Watch a political debate and take sides on politicians’ views and goals of a society (A, M).
